ITALY'S ANNIVERSARY.

OCCUPATION OF ROME BY VICTOR EMANUEL.

Progress of the Socialists—The Spanish Floods—Trouble Likely to be Caused by Creta—Women's Rights in New Zealand, &c., &c.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The 21st anniversary of the occupation of Rome by the Italian army in 1870 was celebrated yesterday with unusual enthusiasm, the greater part of the Roman population spending the day gala fashion, and not sparing the feelings of the clericals in their efforts to prove that the day was one of rejoicing. At the Catholic churches, unlike most holidays, there was an entire absence of any sign of a festal occasion, although the priests as a rule prudently refrained from saying anything to exasperate. The anniversary has always been treated as a day for mourning and for sorrow by the advocates of the temporal power, of whom there are many in Rome, although the great majority of the populace are in favor of the kingdom of Italy.

KISSED THE POPE'S FOOT.

The Roman radicals passed severe criticism yesterday on the French workingmen who kissed the Pope's foot, the critics pointing out that persons of wealth and influence are permitted to kiss the Pope's hand or to withhold from kissing altogether, and that the workmen should not have been treated differently.

SOCIALIST CONGRESS.

A Berlin despatch says that the Socialists are making active preparations for the Erfurt congress, and expect to present a much more favorable account of the condition of the party than last year. Amongst the delegates expected is Schmalefield, the shoemaker who ran against Bismarck for the Reichstag, and who compelled all the other parties, much against the will of many of them, to combine in working for the ex-Chancellor. The Socialists hope by the evidence of their strength to be shown at Erfurt to induce all the voters who are below bourgeois rank to join the Socialistic labor party, and they expect to draw also a large number of those of the middle class who are accustomed to cast their lot with the cause most likely to be successful. The Government is said to be alarmed by the increasing strength of the Socialists and the fact that non-interference does not have the effect in diminishing their enthusiasm or their numbers, and it is rumored that the Erfurt congress may not have the freedom of speech that was enjoyed at Halle.

BISMARCK AND THE KAISER.

Prince Albrecht, of Prussia, is said to be personally responsible for the efforts made to effect a reconciliation between Bismarck and the Kaiser. Prince Albrecht, who is a cousin of the Kaiser, has always been a friend and admirer of Bismarck, and deeply regretted the estrangement of the young Kaiser and the statesman. It is said that the approaches of the Brunswick regent to Bismarck were made of his own initiative, and without the direct authority, although with the indirect knowledge of the Kaiser. Nothing was gained, however. Bismarck treated the Prince with cordiality, but showed no desire to become reconciled to the Kaiser, and the mission is suspended.

THE SPANISH CALAMITY.

The latest news from Madrid is to the effect that in the flood stricken districts there has been a noticeable increase of deaths apart from the lives which were destroyed in the floods. The horrible condition of the towns and villages, where many bodies of men and animals lie unburied, is said to be the cause of the mortuary increase, which is already creating great alarm. The Queen Regent has instructed the authorities to pay attention especially to the burial of bodies of all kinds and take the necessary sanitary precautions before doing anything else, and there seems to be a disposition to carry out the order faithfully.

THE TROUBLES IN CRETE.

The Cretan situation is alarming, partly on account of the oppressed conditions of the Cretans, but mostly because of the powerful influences at work to compel the Greek Government to attack the Porte.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS IN NEW ZEALAND.

The Times publishes a dispatch from its Melbourne correspondent saying that Sir George Grey, ex-Premier of New Zealand, made a proposition which he submitted to the House of Representatives, that a new upper chamber be formed in the Government of New Zealand; that this new legislative body be composed entirely of women, and that it replace the present upper chamber.

REBELLION IN ZANZIBAR.

A dispatch of the Berlin Tagblatt from Bagamayo, Zanzibar, says the Wadigo tribe, in the northern territory, have rebelled, and that the settlements of Lewa and Magila are in danger. The Catholic missions in the interior are also in danger. Prompt and effective measures are required to avert serious disaster.

INDIAN CROPS IMPROVING.

The Viceroy of India reports crops as improving and in favorable condition excepting in Mysore, Madras, Ameer and Rajpootana, where the prospects are gloomy.

GERMANY'S TREATIES.

The term of the Austro-German treaty of commerce with Italy has been fixed at six years, at the end of which time a zollverein convention will be definitely concluded. Negotiations will be resumed with Spain, with a view of obtaining the benefits of the most favored nation clause to extend to the Spanish Antilles. A scrutiny of the Spanish commercial agreement with the United States held here shows that Spain may accord the most favored treatment to other nations.

DEFICIT IN HOLLAND'S BUDGET.

The Dutch budget for 1892, shows a deficit of $1,000,000. The sum of $2,000,000, previously assigned for the purpose of demonetizing silver, does not appear in the new budget, and the Government is convinced that no measure in that direction will be necessary in 1892. The second chamber approved the proposal to consider a system of reform of the electoral franchise laws.

New Collector at Port Townsend.

PORT TOWNSEND, Sept. 19.—Captain Andrew Wasson received a telegram from Assistant Secretary Spaulding, of the State Department of Washington City to-day, saying, that President Harrison had appointed him collector of the Puget Sound custom district, vice Charles M. Bradshaw, removed. News of the appointment spread like wildfire throughout the city, and Captain Wasson was the recipient of numerous congratulations. Prominent Republicans said that this appointment was absolutely necessary to insure continued Republican success at the poll next year. Collector Bradshaw declined to be interviewed, and said that the Department had not advised him of his removal. Bradshaw several days ago, however, received advices from Washington City saying that it was absolutely certain that he would be removed from office. The cause of removal was loose management of customs affairs and the collector's habits as an inveterate gambler, which, in addition to using Government moneys, caused a very unfavorable report to be made by the special treasury agents who were detailed to investigate the district. W... in the last few weeks the office has been much better managed. Collector Bradshaw had notified four customs officers of their dismissal, to take effect October 1, which order, however, may be rescinded. Captain Wasson is a member of the lower house of the legislature from this county and is very wealthy. He came to this city several years ago from California, where he was a member of the legislature and sheriff of Monterey county for sixteen years. He is a retired sea captain, and a competent and shrewd business man.

THE OAR.

MCLEAN DEFEATS HANLAN.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 21.—McLean won the race this morning; time 19 minutes 20 seconds. Hanlan came in 8 lengths behind; time 19, 32 1 5. It was a fine race. McLean pulled for all he was worth. Hanlan, to the surprise of everybody, pulled comparatively easily, and put on no huricane spurt, but rowed the same at the finish as at the start, with a beautiful, long, swinging stroke. McLean rowed a nervous, jerky stroke and would have lost his head altogether but for Dutch's coaching, who rowed alongside him all the way telling him to "keep cool." Hanlan was accompanied by O'Connor. Hanlan thinks the time very good and puts his defeat down to the preposterous start. McLean has nothing to boast about, but is delirious with joy. Hanlan says he will get on a match with him in skiffs with an even start. Arrangements will probably be made this afternoon. It is said Hanlan backed McLean quite heavily. Many think he was leading poor Mac on to a really heavy match to clean him out.

A singular fact was noted this morning after the race. Dutch at once became a favorite. There is plenty of Dutch money, and bets are going up on all hands. His style while rowing with McLean was keenly watched this morning. While Mac was doing his level best Dutch was merely trifling with his oars.

Murray and O'Connor nearly had a fight on the rowing club's float this morning. O'Connor said, laughingly, to Hanlan: "Serves you right, to be licked for rowing with a scrub boy." Murray, who is a great friend of McLean's was standing by and said: "Mac's no scrub." O'Connor said he was, and told Murray he did not know what he was talking about. Murray made a hot retort, and O'Connor said if it were not so near the great race he would thrash Murray. The latter said he would know where to find him after the race. O'Connor shook his fist under Murray's nose and then threatened to pitch him off the float if he didn't shut up and get out. Murray retired.

SATURDAY'S RACE.

The race over the harbor course on Saturday afternoon for the championship of the James Bay Athletic Club and the Heimcken cup has not yet been decided. George Watson in his small 35 pound boat came in several lengths ahead of DesBrisay his rival, Sullivan being out of the race, DesBrisay claimed the race as Watson did not turn his proper buoy. The referee gave the race to DesBrisay, but it was decided to ask for a decision from the Canadian rowing Association and it is probable that the race will be rowed over. Watson kept a splendid course all through while DesBrisay went a long way out of his way. Sullivan hurt his wrist shortly after starting. Through the kindness of Mr. G. A. McTavish, who had his Naptha yacht out, the members of the press were enabled to follow the race from start to finish.

THE GUN.

SATURDAY'S SHOOTING.

The Union Gun Club held a shoot at Victoria Driving Park on Saturday last. The first six scores were as follows: J. C. Maclure 21, H. N. Short 20, F. S. Maclure 20, J. M. Langley 18, A. R. Langley 17, F. Higgins 17. There will be a meeting of the club this evening at 9 p.m. at 6 Bastion Square, to arrange for the match with the Tacoma club on 26th inst.

LABOR DEMONSTRATION.

MINERS OF NANAIMO AND WELLINGTON CELEBRATE.

Speeches Made and Much Enthusiasm Shown in Spite of a Wet Day—A Determination to Stick by the Union Expressed—Thousands Join in the Parade.

NANAIMO, Sept. 21.—The labor demonstration which took place in Nanaimo on Saturday surprised even the most sanguine expectations of the leaders of the different unions. The day opened badly with a heavy shower of rain, which continued until the procession started, and for a while it was feared there would be no procession on account of the rain. However, the elements smiled upon them and they were enabled to march at the 11th hour. The order of the procession as it passed to the "Green" was as follows: The Northfield lodge of the M. & M.L.P.A., headed by the brass band and a very handsome banner of the union; next came the "Wellington strikers," with the banner of the Knights of Labor at their head; then the "Coast Seamen's Union," with a pretty banner entwined with the emblems of their society. The Longshoremen came next, and although only a young order, they mustered exceedingly well, and their dress and banners were becoming to the occasion. The next was the "United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America," followed by the Nanaimo brass band, while the rear was brought up by Branch No. 1 of the M. & M. L. P. A. The banners used for the occasion were profusely distributed throughout the procession, and were remarkable for the designs, especially those of the Knights of Labor. The procession, on arriving at the green, was dismissed for dinner, which being soon over the sports were commenced, and at three o'clock there were probably a thousand persons assembled on and around the platform to listen to the addresses.

Mayor Hilbert on taking the chair expressed the pleasure it afforded him to be present on so auspicious an occasion. He felt proud to see so many take part in the procession to-day, and he was sure that but for the untimely rain it would have been considerably augmented. He apologised for not making any lengthy remarks, as there were several visitors whom they would be glad to hear. The first gentleman he would call upon would be

Mr. G. Norris (Free Press) who was received with loud cheers. He then proceeded to deliver a very elaborate speech, in which he congratulated them upon the success which had attended the efforts of the union since he had last had the honor to address them, twelve months ago. He said there was one thing to be lamented, the Wellington difficulty, which had not been amicably settled. He alluded to the new V. C. Co. and the East Wellington Company and the manner in which they had both prospered, which he felt sure was due to the fact that they both employed organized labor, and for the benefit of both. He dwelt at considerable length upon the power of unionism, which he claimed would have to be properly governed or they would be in danger of undoing themselves. He prophesied great things for union organizations if they would continue to be true to each other, and warned them they were liable to destroy themselves by internal dissensions, but trusted they would meet in the end with the success they so well deserved (cheers).

Mr. Marchant, who rose amid loud cheering, spoke of the honor he felt in taking part in the demonstration, but said he felt like a friend of his who went to a mother's meeting in the old country, and was asked to speak, when he replied that he did not know why he was asked to speak, as he was not a mother (laughter). He (the speaker) felt much the same, as he was not a miner. He spoke of the different parts he had played in the different labor movements, and humorously alluded to the fact that he had always been strongly opposed at every step by some individual or other. He did not believe in a man who was always patting the other man on the back. He was not here for that purpose. In dealing with the question of education, the speaker showed that he was fully conversant with the subject, and displayed a great deal of knowledge in a most eloquent manner and made a profound impression upon his hearers, which caused them to applaud repeatedly. He urged them to change their representatives, to see that not one day was lost in endeavoring to urge it on the Government to have the children of British Columbia educated in mineralogy, and further he strongly advised them to take advantage of the franchise and cast their votes accordingly (cheers). In dealing with the masses, he claimed all helped each other in their respective callings, and illustrated this fact by several pictures of public life. He believed in combination, and thought every workingman had a perfect right to combine, but it was subject to the condition that they do no wrong. The future of the Pacific coast was yet before them, and the sunshine was bright overhead and labor would shortly have its reward (cheers).

Mr. W. H. Ireland, one of the delegates from the Trade and Labor council of Victoria, being asked to speak, said the order he represented had sent them their congratulations, and he was instructed to make some enquiries as to the present dispute between the two factions of the Miners' Union. He had been told and it was so said in the Colonist's report that the dissatisfied faction were in the majority, but this idea had been ridiculed by many with whom he had conversed since his arrival in the city, and he was now informed they were in the minority and if this were true they should stand by the union and fight for it. (Cheers.)

Mr. G. A. Grant stated that his mission here was in behalf of the Trade and Labor council, Victoria, and was for the purpose of trying to bring about a conciliation and harmonious feeling between the two factions. He said unless they could come together they would undo a great deal of the good work they had already accomplished, as without union they were powerless.

Mr. J. Storey, president of No. 1, branch of the M. & M.L.P.A., was the next speaker, and expressed the pleasure he felt in being present on this occasion. In referring to the labor question he said it was necessary that all should combine in order to bring about a grand organization. He dealt with the duties of a union and the stand they should take in the interests of labor; one side of the unions was progressive and the other side aggressive. It was therefore needful that they should find out the great principle that should govern them, and when they had discovered it, to go to work with a will and do it. He drew a picture of the labor movement from the past ages to the present, and showed that the position labor now occupies was due to unionism. It was not pleasant to witness the discord among them, but he hoped to see an amicable settlement arrived at, and that they would treat each other with great magnanimity and bring about the best results. (Cheers.)

Mr. Baxter in speaking of the dissension among them said it was not only necessary for them to help with their mouths but it was necessary also to assist by putting their hands into their pockets and give their aid that way. If a levy was put on them and kept on a little longer than was expected there should be no dissent from good union men. The order he belonged to was in the habit of helping every union to fight, and when they lost their legs they would still fight on their stumps. He explained the way the Brotherhood of Carpenters was conducted financially, and asked if any of those present who were carpenters would join their union and assist them to keep up the price of labor. Their union was only a young one in Nanaimo, but the way they turned out to-day showed they were strong, and he did not want to see any "scabs" creep in among them and contend with them. (Cheers.) In speaking of the dispute between the two factions of the miners' union he said he would like to see them come to some understanding, as in his opinion they may as well live the rest of their lives as friends instead of living till they die as enemies. (Cheers.)

Mr. T. Keith, M.P.P., addressed the meeting and alluded to the pleasure he felt in noticing the success which had attended the demonstration, in spite of the heavy rain which had fallen. He had not expected to see any procession to-day, but he was glad to say he was delightfully surprised. He paid Mr. Marchant a high tribute for the eloquent address he had delivered. He only regretted that gentleman was not representing the people of Nanaimo in the Dominion Parliament. In speaking on the question of education, he praised the educational system of British Columbia in being "free" to all, and said he believed in technical education, which in his opinion was greatly needed. He prophesied that in a few years time, as soon as the people were educated, they would obtain a stand in the progress of the world that they had never been able to obtain the past. He said organised labor was a necessary evil. That seemed a strange saying, but it was a necessary evil to do away with tyranny and to get a share of the profits they helped to make. He thought they should live their lives so that they may leave the world the better for their having been in it. (Cheers).

The people then withdrew, as the rain was falling down gently. The sports were gone on with and lasted until dark. In the evening the event was wound up by a grand dance, given in the Opera House, which was well attended.

The Nanaimo brass band furnished the music for the day, and their lively strains attracted a large concourse of people to the green.

It is to be regretted that the day was a wet one, but in spite of this fact the sports were carried out very successfully and everybody enjoyed themselves.

Robbed the "Rita."

The neat little naptha yacht Rita, owned by Mr. G. A. McTavish, was visited Saturday night by a party more on plunder bent than pleasure. When that party left the boat, perhaps it was through absent mindedness, but the yacht's outfit and furnishings, all that was portable, took their departure also. The articles missing, valued at between $300 and $400, consist of mattrasses, cushions, rugs, field glasses and several other articles of value. The police are working on what they consider a good clue, but have not yet located the thief or thieves.

SIR HECTOR LANGEVIN.

THE MAJORITY AND MINORITY REPORTS ON HIS CASE.

A Decided Difference in the Findings—McGreevy Condemned and Langevin Whitewashed by the Majority—Messrs. Mills and Davies Condemn Both.

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—The reports prepared by the Conservative majority and Liberal minority of the sub-committee on the Langevin-McGreevy scandal were presented to the sub-committee today. The majority report was signed by Sir John Thompson and Messrs. Girouard and Adams, and it completely exonerates Langevin, but blames McGreevy and some officials of the Public Works department and recommends prosecutions. This report first deals with the charges against Thomas McGreevy in connection with the Quebec dredging contract. It finds that Mr. McGreevy's brother Robert was made a partner with the contractors for the purpose of securing Thomas' influence, that Thomas knew of his brother's interest in the contract and aided in getting the lower lender set aside. A similar finding is made with respect to the cross wall contract, for securing which Mr. McGreevy was to receive $23,000 from the contractors, and the report says that he did receive at least $15,000 of that sum, the majority of the sub committee being of opinion that a portion of this money and of other sums said to have been given by Thomas McGreevy were retained by Robert McGreevy and Murphy. It states that Mr. McGreevy obtained advance information from J. E. Boyd, late engineer of the Public Works Department about the cross wall contract, which information assisted Larkin, Connolly & Company in securing the contract, and for that service Mr. McGreevy received $14,000. With regard to the Levis graving dock contract the majority report points out that Thomas McGreevy admits having received $10,000 from the contractors for that work, which sum he gave to Le Monde, Langevin's newspaper, while Murphy swears the amount paid him was $22,000, and Robert McGreevy says the sum was $14,000. The report says the amount he actually received cannot be determined satisfactorily.

ESQUIMALT DOCK.

Respecting the Esquimalt dock contract, the majority report sets forth that before that contract Mr. McGreevy interested himself in it, procuring advance information from the engineers, for the benefit of the contractors, and that Thomas McGreevy was aware from the beginning that his brother Robert had been given 30 per cent. interest in the contract, without being required to furnish any capital, for the purpose of securing Thomas' influence.

THOMAS GOT THE MONEY.

The report says that Thomas McGreevy did receive money out of this contract, and though the amounts cannot be definitely be determined they were charged to expense account with the work. Coming to the contract for dredging the wet basin at Quebec, the majority report admits that Mr. Tarte's charges in reference to that job has been proved. The price for dredging was increased from 27 to 35 cents a yard in accordance with an agreement by which the contractors were to give 8 cents a yard for political purposes. "Thomas McGreevy," it said, "denies the existence of any agreement or understanding such as is sworn to by Murphy and Robert, but admits that Larkin, Connolly & Co. subscribed twenty thousand dollars for political purposes. He admits receiving twenty thousand in that way." It is admitted that Thos. McGreevy knew that the price agreed upon for dredging was excessive, and the committee find that Mr. McGreevy, knowing that his brother was a partner in the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co. made an arrangement with that firm by which he was to receive $25,000 for political purposes out of the proceeds of the dredging contract at the increased price which he was to secure.

THE ADMIRAL.

The majority find that Thomas McGreevy was the sole owner of the steamer Admiral which received $12,000 yearly subsidy from the Dominion Government, while Mr. McGreevy was a member of Parliament; the majority find that Thomas McGreevy received $25,000 out of the cross wall contract, $25,000 out of the Levis dock contract; $27,000 out of the dredging contract of 1887, and $35,000 out of the Esquimalt dock contract, or $109,000 in all, and that Robt. McGreevy gave his brother $57,345 out of his share of profits from the contracts referred to. The majority also find that Thos. McGreevy acted in the interest of the contracting firm while these contracts were in progress, but that there was nothing improper in his connection with the Baie des Chaleurs Railway or his receiving a portion of the subsidies voted towards that road; they find that Mr. McGreevy used the name of Sir Hector Langevin, Minister of Public Works, in dealing with the contractors, in such a way to make it appear that he had influence with the minister. With respect to the charges against the officers of the Public Works Department the findings of the majority are vague and indefinite, though Perley is blamed for making the reduction of $19,000 in the value of the plant given with the contract for the Esquimalt dock. The whole responsibility for that transaction is placed on Mr. Perley. The majority also blame Perley for recommending to the harbor commissioners the acceptance of Larkin, Connolly & Co.'s offer to dredge the wet basin for 35 cents a yard, and for making extra allowance in connection with the Levis dock. With respect to the payment of $10,000 by Murphy to Langevin, the majority report quotes the evidence given by all the parties with regard to Murphy's career in New York before his absconding with $50,000 of trust funds as related, and the majority considered that the charge of corrupt payment to Langevin is not sustained, both Murphy and Robert McGreevy being, in their opinion, discredited. It is admitted that Larkin, Connolly & Co. contributed $1000 to the Langevin testimonial fund, but the majority think Sir Hector was not influenced by this nor a conspiracy proved. In conclusion Sir John Thompson and Messrs. Adams and Girouard say: Having regard to the various features which appear in the contracts which were the subject of this investigation, we feel bound to report that members of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co. conspired to defraud the government, and were materially aided in their designs by Thomas McGreevy. This conspiracy has been all the more powerful and effective by reason of the confidence which the late Minister of Public Works had in the integrity and efficiency of his officers and by reason of the confidence which the late minister entertained with regard to Thomas McGreevy, and has accomplished results which are to be greatly regretted as regards the administration of the department, and greatly to be condemned as regards those who lent themselves knowingly to the purposes of the conspirators.

SIR HECTOR WHITEWASHED.

The charges against Sir Hector Langevin, as already intimated, having been as above set forth, the committee observes that in the course of the investigation an effort was made to connect him with the wrongdoings of others who have been reported against as directly connected with fraudulent conduct.

The majority of the committee, therefore, report that the evidence does not justify them in concluding that the minister knew of the conspiracy before mentioned or that he willingly lent himself to its object.

They recommend that in addition to such action as may seem called for under the findings hereinbefore expressed, such legal proceedings as may be available be taken against those who are concerned in this conspiracy, and that for that purpose the books and papers which were before the committee be retained in order that they may be available for such proceedings.

THE MINORITY REPORT.

The minority report of Messrs. Mills and Davies points out that the relations between Thomas McGreevy and Sir Hector Langevin have for the past 20 years been of the closest and most intimate kind, Mr. McGreevy advancing Sir Hector $10,000 in 1888, taking in return promisory notes therefor, which notes are still outstanding, Mr. McGreevy paying the interest thereon; that each contributed to establish and maintain Le Monde newspaper, McGreevy's contribution amounting to $25,000; that McGreevy was treasurer of the funds for the Conservative party in the Quebec district, while Langevin was the party leader and director of expenditures for party purposes; that the amounts received by McGreevy from contractors went to form the party's fund, and McGreevy's refusal to state how these moneys were disposed makes it impossible to state definitely to what extent Sir Hector was benefitted politically or otherwise by their disbursement. As contractors Larkin, Connolly & Co. received from the government during the years between 1871 and 1891 $3,138,234, out of which they made profits amounting to nearly one million dollars, the cost of the works being $2,184,259. Out of the profit the contractors gave "donations" amounting to $170,447. Robert McGreevy received $187,800 as his share of the profits, though he contributed no capital. Reference is made to the erasures of entries from the firm's books; to Thos. McGreevy's refusal to disclose the names of the parties to whom he paid the moneys for political purposes, and to the bribery of inspectors by contractors. With respect to the first dredging contract the minority report points out that the contractors made large profits at twenty-seven cents per yard, their profits being double the cost of the work; that McGreevy knew about his brother's interest in the contract, and that he corruptly used his influence as Harbor Commissioner and Member of Parliament to secure for Larkin, Connolly & Co. contracts and improper concessions in consideration of their taking his brother into partnership without capital. The minority find that McGreevy bargained for and received $35,000 for getting the price for dredging of the wet basin increased from 27 to 35 cents per yard; that Perley and other officers of the Public Works department connived at this fraud; that the profits made by the contractors upon this work were enormous, reaching $140,000 in one year, while in the same year nearly $7000 were paid in bribes to inspectors. From the evidence of Dobell and Valin, members of the harbor commission, Mills and Davies concluded that Sir Hector passively connived at the frauds perpetrated in connection with the dredging work; that large payments were made for work never performed; that Engineer Perley received jewelry from contractors to influence his reports, and that Tarte's charges in connection with this work are proved. Perley is charged with recommending payment of bogus claims made by the contractors for extras in connection with this work. The cost of the Levis dock to the government was $726,901, whereas the contract price was $320,000, and the dock was reduced in length by fifty-five feet after the contract was awarded. Out of this job the contractors made $80,985, in addition to $44,035 paid to McGreevy and others. The minority report finds that Sir Hector knew well the facts, and that in sanctioning Perley's report and in allowing the contractor's claims for extras the conduct of Sir Hector was highly censurable and in violation of the public trust reposed in him; that the conditions of the contract were deliberately violated by Sir Hector and Perley in order to favor contractors.

ENORMOUS FRAUDS.

Mills and Davies also find that frauds were willfully perpetrated in order to secure the crosswall contract for Larkin, Connolly & Co.; that the lowest tenders were passed over, causing a loss to the country of $69,850; that McGreevy received $25,000 for services corruptly rendered in connection with this contract; that Sir Hector Langevin cannot be absolved from knowledge of the conspiracy to defraud the government, and that in permitting the double payment to be made for certain works he was guilty of a gross breach of public trust. Regarding the Esquimalt dock contract the minority report shows that Sir Hector and Perley improperly coerced and induced Starrs and O'Hanly, the lowest tenderers for the work, into withdrawing their tender, representing that it was too low in order to give the contract to Larkin, Connolly & Co.; that changes were made in plans to favor the contractors; that the contractors received from the government for that work $381,841, or

SIR HECTOR LANGEVIN.

$207,168 more than their tender; that they paid $27,000 in "donations," to Thomas McGreevy and others in connection with that work, and that the actual cost of the work was $50,000 less than the tender of Starrs & O'Hanly, which Langevin pronounced too low. Mills and Davies are of opinion that T. McGreevy received from Larkin, Connolly & Co., corruptly, over $130,000; that he received $42,000 out of the Baie des Chaleurs railway subsidies without investing anything; that he was the owner of the steamer Admiral while sitting in parliament; that his denials in parliament were false, and that his action was a violation of the Independence of Parliament act. With respect to the alleged payment of $10,000 by Murphy to Sir Hector Langevin, the minority report says that Murphy's statements in that connection are partly corroborated by entries in the books and checks produced, but as the evidence is contradictory they do not feel justified in reporting the charge proved. In conclusion, they say that the enormous sums of public money allowed and paid Larkin, Connolly & Co., for extras show that the firm had acquired a controlling influence over the Minister of Public Works through McGreevy; that Engineers Perley and Boyd would have no motive in defrauding the public unless it was to please Sir Hector; and that the fruits of the frauds referred to went either into the pockets of contractors, towards the funds of the Conservative party or to the support of Le Monde, Sir Hector's newspaper.

CANADIAN NOTES.

Recent Events Reported from the Eastern Provinces.

Martin Farrell, of Toronto Junction, suicided by taking poison.

Mrs. Thomas Donkin, of Stratford, was struck by a train and fatally injured.

Baker's Hotel at Lake Edward has been burned. Loss heavy; insurance, $5000.

The body of John Harrington, bachelor, 47 years of age, was found lying with his neck broken at Ottawa.

The bye election in Kent county, N. B., for the House of Assembly, resulted in the election of Legere, the Blair Government's candidate.

The Canadian agent at Glasgow strongly urges the Canadian farmers to dehorn cattle at an early age. They would thus secure much better prices.

Kingston grain dealers say a large quantity of grain in the surrounding sections of the country has been softened and greatly depreciated by wet harvest weather.

Toronto's great industrial fair is over. The total receipts for the two weeks it has been open amounted to $67,500, a decrease as compared with last year's receipts of $1200.

It is stated that the Lieut.-Governor of Quebec and his ministers have agreed upon Chief Justice Johnson as commissioner to enquire into the Baie des Chaleurs scandal.

Dr. Wells, pastor of the American Presbyterian church in Montreal for the past twenty-one years, has accepted a call to the Plymouth Congregational church, Minneapolis.

Murray & Cleveland, who have the contract for the construction of the Toronto Harbor works, have entered a suit against the Mail Printing Company, claiming $50,000 damages for libel.

Le Monde claims to know on the best authority that La Patrie has been definitely sold to Mercier's friends, and that Beausoleil will be manager. Tarte is mentioned as likely to be editor.

The township clerk of Sydenham denies the story recently published to the effect that a number of women in the excess of religious fervor removed their corsets and burned them in public.

Hon. Thomas McGreevy, M.P., who fled to the States rather than appear before the bar of the House of Commons, was seen in Quebec Friday night. It is thought he will soon be over the border again.

News has been received of the death of Dean Lyster on the 2nd inst., at the house of his brother in Wales. Deceased was Dean of Ontario diocese, and rector of St. George's cathedral, Kingston.

It is stated that Hon. Mr. Joly de Lotbiniere will be appointed legislative councillor for Lauson. There are several gentlemen wanting the place, and the ex-Liberal leader stands the best chance of any.

Senator Tasse has instituted two actions of $10,000 each against L'Electeur for having stated on two different occasions that he had pocketed $100,000 out of the Dominion subsidy to the Temiscamingue railway.

At the assizes at St. Catherines the jury in the case of Frank Risch, charged with the abduction of Miss Rolls, daughter of a wealthy resident of that place, returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged.

At a meeting of the executive of the Central Farmers' Institute in Toronto a committee was appointed to consider the question of holding a monster picnic and inviting the patrons to take part in it, instead of holding numerous small farmers' gatherings continually all over the country.

A letter from Nickel City brings news of the drowning on Lake Wahnapitae last week, of two well-known citizens of Sudbury, Anthony McCormick and J. H. Babcock. They were crossing the lake in a canoe, when a storm came up and swamped their frail craft. A half-breed, who was with them, clung to the canoe and was drifted to shore.

The St. Clair tunnel was formally opened Saturday. A train containing Sir Henry Tyler and other officers of the Grand Trunk Railway, and over two hundred invited guests arrived at Sarnia about noon and listened to an address from the Sarnia Council after which the party went through the tunnel and was received by the Port Huron Council on the United States side. A dinner was served at 2 o'clock.

Rev. F. X. Renaud has been appointed superior of the Jesuits in Canada.

It is announced that Peter Redpath will place a magnificent new literary building at the disposal of McGill University. The bequest will amount to about $200,000.

One of the members of the Winnipeg Military School recently deserted, and it is said he carried off $100 of the funds. He had charge of the officers' mess, and in this position was brought into commercial relations with city merchants, several of whom, it is said, now regret their confidence and will carry various amounts to the profit and loss account.

The judges of the Ontario Court of Appeals have not yet been able to agree as to the jurisdiction of the Local Legislature in connection with the local option prohibition legislation of last year's session. Judgment was to have been given in a test case, but the court decided to defer it until a later date. Meanwhile they will look up further authorities.

The Montreal Court of Appeal met recently but as there were only three judges present the court had to be adjourned. The court at present is practically demoralized and thorough reorganization will have to be made by the Government. Although Hon. Mr. Lacoste has accepted the chief justiceship and Judge Wurtele has been appointed to succeed Judge Tessier, other changes will have to be made before the court is in working order.

At the Canadian Medical Association Convention in Montreal the chief question discussed was whether the medical course should be extended to five years throughout the Dominion. The delegates were unanimously in favor of extending the term for medical students. Ottawa was chosen as the next place of meeting. Among the officers elected were Dr. Lafferty, Calgary, first vice-president of the Northwest Territories; Dr. Kennedy, Fort Macleod, local secretary for the Northwest Territories.

At the meeting of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance in Toronto, President Howland said he would pay no attention to the prohibition commission to be appointed by the Government. The authorities at Ottawa, he said, were simply playing with the advocates of prohibition. The question of the formation of a third party was discussed at to-night's meeting, but the idea was not much favored. the opinion was freely expressed that if the cause of prohibition makes as much progress during the next few years as during the past few, the next House of Commons will see a majority of prohibitionists.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensations while urinating, and all affections of the kidneys or urinary organs of either sex.

NOVEL AND NEW.

THE CANADIAN CO-OPERATIVE Supply Co. is the name of a new firm starting in to do business in the Belmont Block, No. 60 Yates street, P. J. Nolan, manager. Their plan is the co-operative system, a plan that has met with great favor in Canada and the United States. It took so well in Chicago that a large watch factory adopted this method entirely to sell their watches. The plan is simply this:—They have a contract whereby a certain number of persons agree to co-operate together for the purpose of purchasing watches, clothing, etc., agreeing to pay $1 per week for so many weeks, unless they are released from the payment of any part of it by reason of having the article they subscribed for delivered to them. The contracts are placed together each week and a club member only draws out one contract, and the article is delivered to the member whose name appears on the contract. No more payments are required from him; he then drops out of the combination and a new one takes his place. se12-4t

THE EXODUS.

The Toronto Empire is still engaged in an effort to explain the exodus. It finds that "the United States have some advantages over us in the quest for emigrants;" that they have the force of great numbers, and the magic strength of that phrase 'friends in America'; that the republic holds out all sorts of inducements offered through differing sources, in order to win emigrants; and it also alleges that the first shipload of Italians to the states commenced in a swindle. The Italians had shipped for Brazil, but were landed in New York, much to their amazement. Again, as illustrating the force of the tendency which enables one immigrant to draw others, it quotes the letter of a gentleman writing from Bremen. "When," says the writer, "a letter comes into a German village bearing one or two hundred marks to some old frau, the event is celebrated over the village beer and pipe, and in the halo the New World is transfigured, the more so when the rate of wages is compared." "Further," points out the Empire, "the confusion in the European mind as to America also tends strongly against Canada."

All this is specious reasoning. The Empire speaks as if the Dominion Government had never made an effort to secure immigrants. It does not mention Sir Charles in London, Mr. Fabre in Paris. It forgets that the Dominion Government bonuses immigrants and that Mr. Mercier offers a substantial reward to those who raise large families. The Empire also forgets to state that during the last ten years over 800,000 immigrants landed in Canada, and that for some cause or another they found their way to the United States. To what was this owing? What induced them to abandon the country in which it was their intention to settle? Was it the lack of land, the climate, "frosted" wheat? Not at all. It was commercial isolation, red tapeism, paternalism, the circumlocution office, monopoly. The Government puts a reserve on everything that is valuable. Crown grants are issued provisionally, that is to say, according to the caprice of the powers that be. There is complexity where there should be simplicity, and over all, paternalism. There is scarcely a spot in all the wide Dominion of Canada where a poor man may safely develop a coal mine or secure a timber limit. The government reserves the right to own such things for its friends. The Esquimalt railway has a million of acres of land for sale, but the minerals are reserved. What man would be so foolish as to develop a coal mine or a gold mine in such circumstances?

The inducements to settle in the Dominion as compared to the United States are as mole hills to mountains. Everything in this country is run in the interest of paternal government. When the Dominion of Canada is prepared to give poor men the opportunities to acquire wealth that are afforded in the States, then will population increase and not before.

THE PLAGUE SPOT.

Goldwin Smith writing on the scandals to the Anti-Jacobin, an English publication, says:—

When the present Minister of Public Works (Langevin) was convicted of participating in the Pacific Railway scandal, you made him a knight. When a general election, sprung upon the country for a party purpose by a gross abuse of the prerogative of dissolution, is carried by falsehood and corruption, your Prime Minister compromises Imperial impartiality by cabling his congratulations on the happy result. When a Canadian commissioner in England, setting at naught those principles of the civil service which are of the most vital importance to a growing community, rushes over to Canada to take a conspicuous part, not only in a political conflict but in political corruption, a body of English public men give him a complimentary dinner, at which letters of sympathy are read from such statesmen as Lord Hartington and Lord Derby. When the managers of a Canadian railway, whose road has been built with public money as a national enterprise, and who are bound to strict impartiality in politics, set public morality and decency at defiance by interfering with open violence in an election, you signify your sense of their service by the creation of a peerage. Of course you do not mean in any of these cases to reward or countenance wrong; you are only ignorant and ill-advised. But what feelings do you suppose are excited in the breasts of the worthier part of the Canadian people?

In another place Mr. Smith says, peaking of Sir John Macdonald:—

He always said that his own hands were clean, and so (comparatively peaking, at least) they were, though he annot be said to have been particularly delicate or scrupulous. * * * * * t is very likely that Sir John Macdonld, with his wonderful address and ast experience, did the job for us as cheaply as it could be done. The result, however, could not fail to be the degradation of political character among a people naturally as worthy and as fit for free government as any people in the world.

Naturally criticism of this kind, which, indeed, for condensed truth it would be difficult to parallel, has raised a storm. The Toronto Empire foams at the mouth, and the same kind of impotent raging is the characteristic of the Tory press generally. The London Canadian Gazette, however, is cooler, and more argumentative. It consoles itself with the reflection that "despite all his prejudices, Mr. Goldwin Smith is too keen and truthful an observer to pretend, as the Times (London) writer pretended, that the Ottawa revelations imply the total degradation of political character among the Canadian people."

That the London Times writer is wrong and Mr. Smith right does not admit of argument. The Canadian people are not totally depraved politically. The worst that can be said of them is, that they have stubbornly refused to believe that Tory leaders were dishonest; which is bad enough. If, however, any of Sir John's cabinet are permitted to survive the revelations of the past summer, there will be occasion to reconsider this opinion. Canadians can make up their minds that unless they make a clean sweep of the men who have traded in false issues and who have permitted the treasury to be plundered right and left, they will be put in the category of Langevins by their English brethren, which is to say, they will be rated either as fools or knaves.

It is time that Canadians woke up to the fact that Tory leaders have been carrying on a political bunco game. When the Pacific Scandal cat escaped from the bag, the Old Man excused himself by pleading that if he had done wrong it was because of his immense devotion to the Old Flag. And such was also the burden of Tupper's cry Whenever he perpetrated a fraud on the taxpayer by building a useless railway or by bonusing somebody's bridge or somebody else's iron works, it was his invariable refrain that the job was going to redound to the glory of the empire. But it is useless to multiply instances of corrupt practices, any of which were visible to those who were not blinded by the old flag dust. But now that the spell has been removed, now that it appears beyond a doubt that the entire Tory regime for years past has been a fraud, the Canadian people, if they would be regarded by the world as fit for self-government, will insist on the purging process being kept up until the political system of the Dominion is thoroughly rid of the men who have used the old flag to hide their venality.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Sir Charles Tupper cables that he has no intention of returning to Canada unless asked to return by the Dominion Government. He is uncertain also as to whether to go to Washington as a reciprocity commissioner. The best thing Sir Charles can do is to remain where he is. The man who betrayed the confidence of the American Secretary of State, misrepresented his actions, is not the man to represent Canada at Washington on the 12th of October next.

ROBBED BY A TRAMP.

Two Hundred Indians Catch a Tramp who had Robbed Them.

A party of two hundred Victoria Indians, in charge of Police Officer Tom James, had a lively experience with a tramp in the Puyallup valley last week, which the latter will not forget for at least 18 months. The party which was among the crowd that came home on Saturday evening was camped near a river in the valley 200 strong and divided into 18 camping parties. They were all out in the field one morning when a small boy who had been to his father's tent for something to eat found that the camps had been visited by someone who had been hard at work for several hours removing blankets, clothes, guns, cooking utensils and everything that he could lay his hands on. The news soon spread among the 200 Indians, who rushed to the camp, and learning from a peddler that a man had been seen with a trunk down the road, gave chase after having divested themselves of their shoes. The run was a long one, but they soon overtook the tramp with his heavy load. Officer James asked the man what he was doing with the trunk, but as he did not give a satisfactory answer it was pulled down from his back and opened. What was Tom's surprise when he found it was his own trunk, with his revolver and hand-cuffs right under the cover. The tramp made a break for liberty when he saw the officer's tools but as many hands as could laid hold of him and the irons were put on him. A couple of the cooler Indians and officer James had all they could do to keep their companions from tearing the tramp to pieces. He was about scared to death and willingly returned to the woods in the vicinity of the camps and showed the Indians where he had cached their goods, in four different places.

The tramp was taken to Seattle, where he was tried and sentenced to 18 months at hard labor. The Indians were thoroughly pleased, which helped them to forget for a time their ill-luck in the hopfields.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

At Victoria West Formally Opened Yesterday.—The Opening Services.

There were three large congregations present at the opening services, yesterday, of St. Paul's church, Victoria West. In the morning the services were conducted by Rev. D. Young and the pastor, Rev. D. McCrae. Miss Semple presided at the organ, and the strength of the choir was augmented by Misses Robertson and Greeson, and Messrs. Moir, Kinnaird and Watson. The anthem "Let Him Come In," was very ably rendered by these gentlemen. The service in the afternoon was conducted by Rev. M. L. Rugg, assisted by Rev. D. McGillivray. Liberal collections were taken up at all the services and were devoted to the building fund.

At the morning service Rev. Mr. Young, who is an agreeable and pleasant preacher, took for his text "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people." In the ordinary course of preaching, said the speaker, it is perhaps desirable to direct attention to particular truths, and their personal application. Occasion may arise, however, when it is profitable to present a more comprehensive view of truth; when the vast treasury of the past may be unlocked, and the future with all the purposes of God fulfilled, made to pass before the mind. The dedication of a house to the worship of God may be regarded as an occasion of this kind. The subject of the text is of this discription. We must believe that God is the rewarder of them that diligently seek Him; but how shall they who do not know Him call on Him of whom they have not heard. The speaker referred to the time when God was not known, and when He took such interest in our welfare. That interest still continues unabated, but there are certain occasions when it stands out in greater prominence. Apart from the Gospel itself, nothing displays the devine benevolence so much as the giving of the law. Had it been published from Sinai to an obedient race it would have been hailed with acclamations of joy. It was published, though, to a rebellious race as a proof of the divine presence among them, and as a standing protest against sin. But will God in very deed dwell with men? The command: "Let the people make me a sanctuary that I may dwell with them," is an answer to this. The Temple is no longer here, but the Lord of Glory has taken our nature upon Him and made a tempie of that. He is our advocate and intercedor and His plea is all powerful in our behalf. "I will pray to the Father for you," and knowing that, when brought to the footstool of mercy our forgiveness is certain and the end of the Gospel gained. The only condition on which this blessing is gained is a cordial acceptation of the treasures of His grace. Speaking to the text again, the speaker said that the house they were dedicating to-day should be literally a house of prayer. The world itself was intended to be a house of prayer: the heavens declare His glory, and the firmament showeth His handiwork, and everything that has breath is called to praise the Lord. Here, then, in this place, concluded the speaker, and from this day let a period of enlargement commence in our views of the Kingdom of Christ, and in our endeavors to realize them. Let this day be marked as an era in the history of those who propose to worship here, and let us say to all: "Come and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant, that shall not be forgotten." And now, O God, this house is Thine. Manifest Thy presence here. Fill this house with Thy glory. May Thy servants never assemble here without expecting Thy presence, nor separate without receiving Thy blessing. Often surprise them with the riches of Thy grace. Let the congregation here be united, holy, prayerful, enlarged, active, filled with all the fruits of the spirit, and may it adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things. Let the ministry of Thy servant whom Thou hast placed here be eminently useful. May he be valiant for the truth, wise to win souls, suited to the wants of the times, and successful in enlarging the Kingdom of Christ.

A Town of Home Owners.

At Seattle, Wash., an enterprising company operating on a plan similar to that of the Mount Tolmie Home Building Association, of this city, laid out a townsite and began the sale of lots and houses on the 4th of April last, in the dullest real estate market that city has known for years. The site selected was remote from all improvements and the new suburb was literally hewed from the forest. In just five months from its inception the town referred to has attained a population of several hundred. It has numerous handsome residences, stores, shops and a commodious town hall. A schoolhouse, to cost $10,000, is under construction. As an evidence of the thrift of the town it may be cited that a lodge of Knights of Pythias was organized a few weeks ago with a charter membership of fifty-four. Funds have been raised and a hall will be erected at once. Numerous other instances of the wonderful vitality and solid growth of the town might be mentioned. Every resident is the owner of his home and financially interested in the prosperity of the town, which despite dull times has prospered beyond any other locality, the value of adjacent property having doubled and in some cases trebled in value in the five months.

Pianos tuned and regulated $2. W. C. Windebank, 45 Blanchard street.

Great Reduction.

John McCallum, merchant tailor, is offering for the next 30 days, tweed suits $25 to $30, fine worsteds, $40 to $45, pants, $7 to $12. Call and examine my stock at 43 Broad street.

Arrived O. K.

A fine stock of Razor Strops; a complete line of shaving materials, etc. Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Table Cutlery direct from Sheffield, at Fox's, 78 Government street. Call and examine.

Made Evening Hideous.

A party of young men were parading the streets in the northern part of the city last evening, keeping step to the inspiring strains of a wheezy concertina. This was all right until the hour of bedtime came. After that it was a decided nuisance.

Result of Threats.

A summons has been served on J. S. Clarke, returnable Tuesday at 10 a.m., before the police magistrate. Clarke is charged with having threatened the life of a gentleman, who declares himself in bodily fear of Clarke and prays that the latter be bound over to keep the peace.

The Equinox.

To-day is the autumnal equinox, and the rains and winds which usually attend the same have been conspicuous by their presence. As a consequence the bottoms of the cellars of new blocks are covered with a layer of water which seriously inconveniences the work of the contractors.

For One Week

D. Campbell & Co., the leading tailors, will offer for one week only, an extraordinary reduction in suits made to order. Observe the following bargains: $30 suits for $25; $35 suits for $30; $40 suits for $35. Pants from $8 to $12, formerly $10 to $14. This is the last chance for this season.

Assaulted a Watchman.

Night Watchman D. Ogilvy was set upon by a drunken Siwash known as "Indian Johnnie" at a late hour last night, and severely injured. "Indian Johnnie" was aided and abetted by another dusky brother, but the latter got away. Johnnie was arrested and dealt with in the police court this morning.

Washouts.

The recent rains caused a number of washouts in different parts of the city where new sewers and drains have been laid. Most of them have been repaired, but there is one that has been a trap hole for horses for several days. It is at the corner of Menzies and Superior streets, right under the car track.

Fine Weather Probable.

Those who are most interested in the forthcoming tournament and agricultural show are earnestly hoping for a week's fine weather. The outlook at present is not bad, although rain is plentiful. "After the storm comes fair weather," and there is every reason to predict Italian skies for exhibition week. The rains cannot last always.

An Earthquake Shock.

A decidedly sharp and distinct earthquake shock disturbed Victorians who are not sound sleepers at about twenty minutes to four this morning. In several residences some small damage was done by the jarring down of fragile articles. The "tremble" was of about a half-minutes duration, the wave motion seeming to come from a southerly direction.

Looks Like New.

The four-wheeled hose carriage, No 3, which has been in the hands of M. J. Meston for some weeks being overhauled, was turned out to-day in all the glory of varnish, vermillion, gold, jet black and white. The reel has been thoroughly repaired, and is now as good as new. In the glory of fresh paint and polished brass work, it will be the pride of the company in the tournament parade.

Mr. Hallett Sustained.

At a large public meeting held at Vancouver on Saturday evening, convened to consider the action of the Provincial Government in the case of Mr. I. H. Hallett, police magistrate, it was unanimously resolved "that this meeting expresses its confidence in the integrity and ability of Mr. I. H. Hallett, the present police magistrate, and would urge upon the Government his appointment as a Justice of the Peace."

B. C Fruit in Winnipeg.

A small quantity of British Columbia fruit was received here yesterday. It came through in good condition and was pronounced fifty per cent. better in flavor and general quality than any California fruit that has ever been sold in this country. If British Columbia can supply Manitoba and the Northwest with such delicious fruit as that which came yesterday the California fruit will be given a very wide berth.—Manitoba Free Press.

Loaded to the Guards.

The steamer Princess Louise returned at 4 o'clock on Sunday morning from Bella Coola and Rivers Inlet. She was loaded down to her guards, having on board 9000 cases of salmon from Rivers Inlet, 5000 cases of which are being loaded into the bark Callao. Three hundred cases will be shipped east and 3700 cases will be warehoused. She brought down 40 Chinamen and a few Indians. The weather throughout the trip was windy and rainy.

A Midnight Tramp.

Two business men of Yates street took passage to Plumper's Pass by the steamer R. P. Rithet yesterday, intending to return on the steamer Yosemite, which usually calls at the pass on her way down from Vancouver. But she made an exception to the rule yesterday and the two Yates street business men aforesaid were, to use the language of the streets, decidly left. Pressing matters required their presence in Victoria to-day, so a small boat was obtained at the pass and the two pulled across to Saanich, late in the evening, from which place they walked into town, reaching their respective domiciles just as the McKillican clock showed the hour of two in the morning. Blistered hands and tired legs are the results of the exercise indulged in.

A Great Convenience.

From this date Jackson & Mylius, jewellers, 76 Government street, will send for your clock, and return it when properly adjusted. Call, or drop in a card, which will have our prompt attention. Watches and jewelery repaired. All work guaranteed.

Police Court Notes.

A full box faced his honor this morning, a round dozen being up. Ten of these were blear-eyed and shaky drunks which were dealt with in the usual way of "$5 or eight days." Jas. Elliot for assaulting an officer was remanded until to-morrow, as was "Indian Johnnie," charged with assault on D. Ogelvy. A klootchman, for having a bottle of whiskey in her possession, paid $25 into court.

Mail Robber Arrested.

T. J. House, a mail clerk employed on the steamer Edith, has been arrested at Port Townsend for robbing the mails. For some time past money has been missed from the Victoria-Seattle mail, which is taken from Port Townsend to Seattle by the Edith. Accordingly a decoy letter was mailed at Victoria. It contained a $10 gold piece, a $10 Canadian bill and a $1 bill, all marked, and close watch was kept on House's actions with the result that House was found to be the thief.

St. Paul's Sale of Work.

The ladies aid society of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Victoria West, will to-morrow afternoon offer for sale a large variety of useful and fancy work, the result of a year's earnest labor, together with some valuable contributions from friends. The sale will be held in the hall, beginning at 4 p.m. and continued throughout the afternoon and evening. Supper will be served for 25 cents from 5 to 8. Goods have been marked at a fair market value. Proceeds in aid of building fund; instrumental music will be discoursed during the afternoon and evening.

The Katherine's Catch.

The Behring Sea catch of the sealer Katherine, amounting to 1243 skins, has been brought from Clayquot by the schooner Oscar and Hattie. The Katherine remains at the station to load oil for this port. Mr. Penny, the owner, was hard at work to-day and last night getting the skins packed, and they will be forwarded by to-night's steamer so as to catch the first train for the east leaving Vancouver to-morrow, which will connect with an ocean steamer in time to catch the October sales at London.

The Mount Tolmie Sale.

The sale of lots and houses at Mount Tolmie Park opened at 9 o'clock this morning. At the hour appointed a large number of persons were in waiting to make selection of favorite locations, and during the first hour nearly fifty lots and a proportionate number of houses were sold. The liveliest interest is manifested and the class of people making selections is evidence that the thriving new suburb will have a large and highly respectable population. Lots are still selling and will undoubtedly continue in sharp demand until the limited number offered are all sold.

Husband and Father Dead.

Death has been very busy among old residents the past few hours, and two homes have been made desolate by the loss of husband and father. At half-past eleven this morning, Mr. Thomas Wilson died at his residence, 191 Pandora street, after a brief illness, pneumonia being the cause. The deceased, who was well known here, was born in Quebec, and was 47 years of age. He leaves a wife and three daughters to mourn his loss. Since his arrival here in 1864 he had been with his brothers, A. & W. Wilson, and had made many friends who will be pained to hear of his sudden death.

Medal From Toronto.

The following letter received this morning, explains itself:

Mr. Thomas Deasy, Chief Engineer, Fire Department, Victoria, B.C.

DEAR SIR,—We beg to inform you that the Championship Gold Medal, presented by us to be competed for at the Firemen's tournament to be held in your city during the latter part of this month, will be completed and ready to send forward to you during the present week, and will no doubt reach you by the 25th or 26th inst. The design is a very handsome one, which we feel assured will be most satisfactory both to your committee and to the winner.

The writer regrets that distance renders it impossible for him to be present on this occasion, but wishes you every success in your undertaking, and trusts that the tournament may pass off in a manner most gratifying to all concerned. With regards, yours very truly,

The Toronto Rubber Co. of Canada, Ltd.
M. MACPHERSON, Sec'y.

The fire supply companies of the east and south have very generously given trophies for the tournament, and the Toronto Rubber Co. has not been backward.

DID NOT THREATEN.

Collector of Customs A. R. Milne Simply Warned a Master to be Truthful.

A telegraphic dispatch from Ottawa appeared in the American papers last week to the effect that Mr. Tupper, Minister of Marine, had stated that the collector of customs of the port of Victoria had exceeded his duty in threatening to deal with Canadian sealers which might return to Victoria after entering Behring Sea for sealing purposes.

An interview with Collector Milne this morning disclosed the fact that the collector had never made any such threat. What gave rise to such a report was what Collector Milne said to Julius Moorehouse, master of the schooner Henrietta. Moorehouse informed Collector Milne about ten days ago that the Henrietta would clear for a sealing cruise to the North Pacific Ocean and Kurile Islands. Collector Milne had good grounds to believe that Moorehouse did not intend to go to that part of the globe at all, and accordingly warned him that if upon his return it was proven that a false declaration had been made, a heavy fine would be the result.

Collector Milne had good grounds for giving this warning, for he had proof that Moorehouse had only a short time ago made some very strange statements not backed up by facts. The Collector does not intend to allow the Custom House to be made the catspaw by which illegal acts are done, but he denies having ever made any threats that Canadian sealers would be dealt with upon their return from the sea, even though they escaped the cruisers. What he will do, though, is to decline to clear any vessels for Behring Sea for sealing cruises while the present modus vivendi obtains. This much he is obliged to do on account of the proclamation which has been published in the Government Gazette. How such a strange report that he should threaten sealers, could have gained credence, he fails to understand.

DEATH OF MR. A. A. GREEN.

A Kindly, Benevolent Citizen, and Upright Business Man Joins the Majority.

After a long and severe illness, death stepped in this morning and terminated the sufferings of not only an old timer of Victoria, but one of its most benevolent citizens and upright business men. Mr. Alexander Alfred Green is associated with the early business history of Victoria, and from his prominent business standing, coupled with his sagacity and integrity, was an influence in local questions, in which his advice was frequently sought.

Ixworth, Suffolk, England, was known as his birthplace (he was born in 1833), where he was reared and educated, the foundation of his education being laid at that well known institution, the Woodbridge grammar school. He afterwards studied as a surgeon with his father who held an extensive practice at Ixworth. In this profession, however, Mr. Green does not seem to have made much progress, for in the midst of his studies the gold fever set in, and he started out to seek his fortune in Australia. California attracted his attention next and he reached that place about 1860, a short time after which he received the appointment of agent for the widely known company of Wells, Fargo & Co., his headquarters being at Nevada. In 1872 he returned to England where he married, and set out for Victoria. He entered into partnership with the late Mr. Frank Garesche, the sad circumstances of whose death are familiar from the foundering of the Pacific. Since then, till the commencement of his late illness Mr. Green has conducted the banking firm of Garesche, Green & Co., an institution that enjoys the most perfect confidence of the public, and seems to be stamped with that fair dealing and uprightness which were marked features of Mr. Green's personal character. During his long illness, Mr. Worlock has been manager, and as will be seen by notice elsewhere, that gentleman's capable hand and head will continue to preside over the affairs of the bank, which will be conducted without change.

In 1873, Mr. Green established the Protestant Orphans' Home, an institution, which apart from the business house which bears his name, will stand as living tribute to his benevolence. For some time he was the chief supporter, but such was the confidence of the public in this man that he never was refused a subscription by anyone whom he asked to lend a helping hand to the lone little ones' home. The history of Mr. Green's charitable acts is written on many hearts, for he was a man who hid his light under a bushel, and performed his works of mercy in the dark. The deceased gentleman was a member of No. 1 Lodge, A.F. & A.M.

Might Have Been Serious.

A young man named D. Irvine was severely hurt shortly after noon to-day on the Esquimalt tram line. He was lying down at the side of the road on a steep bank, and just as the car passed he rolled down and was caught by the braces between the wheels, and his legs cut very badly. The car was stopped at once, and the man taken to the power house, and from there to the Jubilee Hospital, where his hurts were attended to. It is not thought that any serious results will ensue. The motorneer is held to be entirely blameless, as the accident was one mainly the result of Irvine's carelessness. Had the car not been stopped so promptly, the accident might have been more serious.

For the South.

The steamer City of Puebla, Captain Debney, sailed for San Francisco this morning with the following cabin passengers from this port: Mr. York, R.N., Mr. Blackburn and wife, Geo. Lyster, Dr. Tanst, H. Ledyer, W. R. Creech, W. Harbert, W. Stalker, W. J. Pollard, A. Miller, A. Dunsmuir, H. Davidson and wife, Jas. Ross, Samuel Berwin, Miss G. Pedwell, Miss Musgrave, Miss M. Tyson, A. J. Davids and wife, B. J. Morris and W. A. Dodd.

Secord is Missing.

G. A. Secord, who has been running an employment agency at the corner of Broad and View streets has not been seen around his accustomed haunts since Saturday last. The proprietor of the Vancouver hotel and several others are in hopes that he will return.

A Special Trip.

The steamer Princess Louise will leave at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning on a special trip to Rivers Inlet. She will return in time to make her regular trip to northern points on the 1st of October.

Mr. Ross Wins the Stakes.

The horspipe contest in the Philharmonic Hall, Saturday evening, was won by Mr. W. D. Ross, of San Francisco. The contest was advertised to commence at 8 o'clock, but Alex. Benton did not appear on time, and the committee gave him an hour. At 9 o'clock his name was called out three times; he failed to appear; Mr. Ross danced and was declared the winner.

Is On the Kingston.

J. C. Baird, of the U. S. Customs, who shot Geo. Poor, a brother officer, is now acting on board the steamer City of Kingston. He is out on bail awaiting his trial. Baird, since his preliminary examination, has been placed at several stations, but could not get on with the public, so he was sent where he is not so well known.

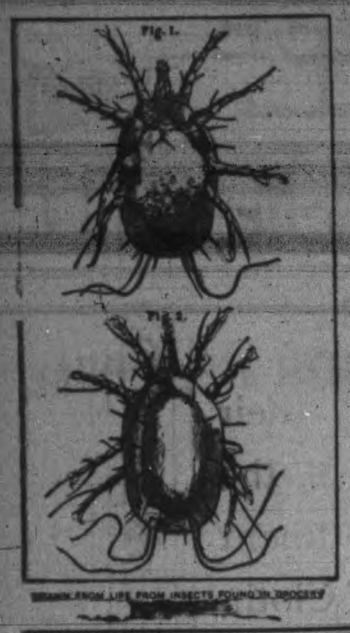
CHINESE - SUGARS; - WHAT - IT - IS - WE - MAY - BE - EATING!



In view of the introduction to the Province recently of considerable quantities of Chinese Sugars, it may be as well that the Public should be informed, on the very highest possible authority, of the danger that may be attendant upon their use.

Professor Cameron, Public Analyst, Dublin, a gentleman who has made it his special business to examine all kinds of Foreign Sugars, Refined and other, says that certain kinds of them should never be used. He states that they contain great numbers of DISGUSTING INSECTS, which produce a DISGUSTING DISEASE. Their shape is very accurately shown in the accompanying cut, which is magnified two hundred diameters. Figure 1 is the under side, and Figure 2 the upper. The Professor's description is as follows:—

"This insect ('the Acarus Sacchari') is a formidably organized, exceedingly lively, and decidedly ugly little animal. From its oval-shaped body stretches forth a proboscis terminating in a kind of scissors, with which it seizes its food. Its organs of locomotion consist of eight legs, each jointed and furnished at its extremity with a hook. In the Sugar its movements from one place to another are necessarily very slow, but when placed on a perfectly clean and dry surface, it moves along with great rapidity." He adds that the number of "Acari' found in Unrefined Sugar is "sometimes exceedingly great, and in no instance is the article quite free from either the insects or their eggs." He further says:—"The Acari Sacchari" do not occur in Refined Sugar of any quality, because they cannot pass through the charcoal filters of the Refinery, and because Refined Sugar does not contain any nitrogenous substance upon which they can feed."

COOLIE - MADE - AND - ALL - UNREFINED - SUGARS - SHOULD - NEVER - BE - USED!

Besides its being impossible for Canadian Labor to compete with Coolie Labor, rice fed and under paid, it is well known that Eastern Countries have always been the breeding ground for leprosy and all other loathsome and horrible human diseases, and hand labor there is so cheap that there is no inducement to employ machinery. Home Refined Sugar, on the contrary, is never touched by the human hand from the moment it reaches the refiner until it leaves him a perfectly safe and purified article.

☞ Use, therefore, Only Home Refined Sugars; They Are Absolutely Unadulterated, Pure and Cheap. ☜

BANK OF B. N. A.

Report of the Half-Year's Operations at the Recent Meeting in London.

A general meeting of the proprietors of the Bank of British North America was held on Tuesday last, September 1st, at the offices of the Bank, 3, Clement's Lane, E.C., Mr. E. A. Hoare in the chair. The attendance was very small.

The secretary (Mr. A. G. Wallis) having read the notice convening the meeting—

The chairman said: Gentlemen,—In moving the adoption of the report, I have in the first instance to draw your attention to the change we have introduced in our usual procedure on the publication of a balance sheet, which we have not previously done at this time of the year. This the Court has decided to do in anticipation of a possible wish on the part of the shareholders for a more frequent statement of the Bank's position. The chief banks in this country are now pledged to a more frequent publication of their figures, and it is the desire of the Court to conform as far as possible to the wishes not only of the shareholders, but of the customers of the bank and of the public in this respect. It may not be generally known that by the Canadian Banking Act all chartered banks of the Dominion are compelled to publish in great detail a monthly statement of accounts. This bank has, in conformity with that Act, been accustomed to a publication of the accounts as frequent as that upon which the London banks have now determined, namely, on the last day of each month. It is not, of course, possible to include in the monthly statement the figures of the London office, but nevertheless it will be interesting to you to learn the net result of the position of the Bank as submitted to the Dominion Government. I find that during the present year the proportion of specie and notes of the Dominion Government, constituting the immediately available assets of the Bank, to the notes issued, and Government and other deposits on demand, constituting the immediate liabilities of the Bank, has been as follows upon the dates named: January 31, 23 per cent., February 28, 30 per cent., March 31, 37 per cent., April 30, 30 per cent., May 31, 36 per cent., June 30, 35 per cent. These figures I may say are entirely normal, there being but little variation from year to year. They show, I think it will be admitted, a position of exceptional strength, and will compare well with those of any other banking institution in Canada, or in any other country. To return to the figures in the present balance sheet, the changes between the present time and December 31st are not remarkable. There is an increase of £116,000 in the deposit and current accounts, and a decrease of £81,000 in the bills payable and other liabilities. Cash and specie show a decrease of £90,000, while cash at call and short notice shows an increase of £230,000. This latter considerable increase has arisen in the ordinary course of business, and has no special significance. Our investments in Consols show an increase of £10,000, being the amount which was invested in accordance with the statement of the chairman at the last annual meeting. The premises account still stands at £88,000, showing no change. By the time we next have the pleasure of meeting you, however, it is probable that there may be an increase under this head, owing to the purchase of a townsite at Vancouver, upon which it is our intention to erect suitable bank premises. The future of Vancouver now appears sufficiently assured to justify the Court in making this outlay. It is also quite possible that additional expenditure may be incurred with the same objects at other places which may appear suitable to the Court. It has always been the policy of the Court to keep the total under the holding of Bank premises down to a figure as low as possible, and the result is that the proportion which the premises account of this bank bears to its paid-up capital is quite unusually low, being, in fact, less than 9 per cent. I may remind you in this connection that shareholders in the principal banks in this country are accustomed to a very much larger proportion than that. In fact, I believe there is only one leading bank in England which shows a proportion of premises account to paid-up capital of less than 20 per cent., while most of them range from 30 to 35 per cent., in this respect some of them being even higher. The Court is satisfied that the total standing to the debit of the company on this account is thoroughly covered by the value of the premises. I do not think there is any other item in the accounts which calls for comment from me. In June last our general manager, Mr. Grindley, came to this country in connection with his private affairs, and although his visit was limited to a few days he was good enough to place a considerable portion of his time at the disposal of the Court. This opportunity of verbally discussing matters of importance was very gladly taken advantage of by the Directors, and proved most valuable, and our only regret is that it has not been found possible in the past to arrange for such visits more frequently. We feel confident that the shareholders, no less than ourselves, are deeply indebted to Mr. Grindley, whose wise and prudent management, and zeal in the service of the bank, cannot be too highly estimated. As to the future, there appears good reason to hope that the crops in Ontario may prove better than they have proved during the last year or two. It is perhaps early to speak with certainty, but there are indications of a more favorable result being realized this year. In Manitoba and the Northwest there was a frost on the 28th of August, which has been viewed seriously in some quarters, but it is too early yet to say what amount of damage, if any, has been done by it. Our latest cable advices are to the effect that the original estimates made on the injury done may possibly prove to have been exaggerated. Certainly it is to be hoped that this is the case, and that Canada may bear her full share in supplying the deficiencies of the European harvests. I now beg to move that the report and accounts herewith presented be received and adopted.

Mr. R. H. Glyn seconded the motion, which was agreed to unanimously, the proceedings thereupon terminating.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION
Under the "Companies Act, 1890."
The Immigration, Investment and Improvement Company of British Columbia (Limited Liability).

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, John Grant, Joshua Holland, Henry Alexander Munn, William H. Bone, John Nicholles, of the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, Paul Pferdner, of Chicago, State of Illinois, U.S.A., desire to form a company under the "Companies Act, 1890."

1. The name of the Company shall be "The Immigration, Investment and Improvement Company of British Columbia (Limited Liability)."

2. The principal place of business of the Company shall be at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

3. The capital stock of the Company shall be five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) divided into five thousand (5000) shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each.

4. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty (50) years.

5. Five (5) trustees shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months, and their names are:—John Grant, Joshua Holland, Henry Alexander Munn, William H. Bone, and Paul Pferdner.

6. The objects for which the Company is formed are:—

(a.) To organize and manage excursion parties to the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893, and to and from other places and points of interest, to make contracts with railways, transportation and other companies and persons for carrying, transportation, care, accommodation and board of such excursion parties and their baggage, and for the insurance against loss by accident of the individual members of the same.

(b.) To promote and secure the representation of the natural and manufactured products of the Province of British Columbia at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893, and at such other expositions and fairs as the Company may deem advisable.

(c.) To carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, brokers, commission agents and merchants, and to manufacture, carry on and execute all kinds of financial, commercial, trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(d.) To guarantee or become liable for payment of money, or for the performance of any obligations, and generally to transact all kinds of guarantee business, and also all kinds of trust and agency business.

(e.) To buy, lease, exchange or otherwise acquire any lands or other property, corporeal or incorporeal rights, franchises or privileges, and to sell, lease or otherwise deal with the same in any lawful way the Company may deem advisable.

(f.) To establish agencies of the Company wherever the Company may deem it advisable, in order to extend and render profitable the business of the Company.

In testimony whereof the parties hereto have made, signed and acknowledged this memorandum of association (in duplicate), at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, this 15th day of September, A.D. 1891.

BALMACEDA'S FATE.

He Committed Suicide in Santiago on Saturday Morning.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The Herald's Valparaiso, Chili, dispatch says: Ex-President Balmaceda, of Chili, shot himself through the temple in his room at the Argentine Legation in Santiago at 8:30 a.m. to-day. The story became known here this afternoon and caused great excitement. Every part of the city this evening is brilliantly illuminated and on every hand is heard the sound of rejoicing. Later accounts from the capital confirm the sensational news and give the details of his suicide. It now seems that Balmaceda left Santiago on August 29th last in the hope of making his escape from Chili; but seeing that every avenue of retreat was cut off he returned there on September 2nd and went thence to the Argentine Legation. I learned to-day the route taken by Balmaceda after the disastrous battle of Valparaiso and the surrender of Santiago on August 29th. In company with ex-Alcalde Victor Echauren he left in a carriage and drove to a point two miles outside the city. Here he took a special train and locomotive which were in waiting. Balmaceda disguised himself with a heavy Spanish cloak. He was recognized by the driver of the carriage, a Scotchman. The train went at high speed as far as Linderoso, 45 miles south of Santiago. There more carriages were in waiting. Hurriedly alighting from the train they entered the carriages and were again driven rapidly away. The route was toward San Antonio Bay. All trace of the fugitives was, however, lost. The police from Santiago learned of the route taken and searched for the carriages. They were unsuccessful, but I learn from a detecative who was engaged on the case that on Sept. 2nd the carriages were traced to the outskirts of Santiago. His intention had been to go on board the vessel Condell, which he expected to find lying in San Antonio Bay. Upon arriving there, however, he discovered to his chagrin that the vessel had sailed.

Since his return to the Argentine Legation from Santiago, Balmaceda has been in an extremely nervous condition. No one, with the exception of the Minister of the Argentine Republic and one other man who was devoted to the unfortunate ex-President's cause, was permitted to talk with him. All the different schemes of flight were considered by the hunted ex-President. Senor Urribari went to the theatre last night. When he returned to the legation he had a long and earnest talk with Balmaceda relative to the latter's ideas previously broached about the advisability of giving himself up to the Junta. Balmaceda and Senor Urribari went to bed at midnight. Senora Urribari about 8 a.m. to-day heard a pistol shot in the bedroom that had been assigned to Balmaceda. She notified her husband. Before he entered Balmaceda's room he ran around to the house of Carlos Walker, and brought that gentleman back to the Legation. Upon breaking the door of Balmaceda's room it was found that he had shot himself. The body was still warm. There was a gaping wound in the temple. The body was undressed and lay on the bed. The revolver was still held in the right hand.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The Herald's Valparaiso special says: The suicide of Balmaceda yesterday morning in his bedroom at the Argentine legation in Santiago is the one absorbing and exciting topic of conversation in every part of this city. There is a mingled feeling of savage rejoicing at his death and of regret that he should have killed himself instead of falling into the clutches of the infuriated citizens, who would have delighted to rend him limb from limb for the long list of cruelties for which they hold him responsible. It is impossible for any one not in this country or not a native to realize the intensity of the hatred that was entertained toward the ex-president. The national holidays, which were to have ended Saturday night, have been prolonged by the news of the suicide. The feasts, illuminations, and other celebrations in honor of the success of the congressional party have been followed by the marching of frenzied crowds through all the streets, shouting songs of triumph over the death of their former ruler. The Valparaiso papers are just out with extras from Santiago about the suicide. The news which they publish in not to be compared in completeness with the story I cabled you last night. One instance of this is the fact that the Argentine minister at Santiago resolutely refused to furnish any of the local papers with a copy of the pathetic letter written by Balmaceda a short time previous to his shooting himself, and in which he defends his course as president. As the Herald's representative I, alone, of all the newspaper men in this city or Santiago, was able to get a copy of this interesting statement. It was through the indefatigable efforts of Minister Egan that I was successful. It is the general belief that Balmaceda's death will hasten in a great degree the restoration of peace throughout Chili. Now that the chief enemy of the victorious junta is no more, it is likely that his followers will be shown mercy, since without Balmaceda to direct them they are very little to be feared. Italy, France, Sweden and Norway have followed the lead of the United States in official recognition of the Junta. Germany, it will be remembered was the second nation to do so. No official recognition has as yet come from England. This creates considerable comment.

The Great Benefit

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

Her Face Her Fortune,

Is commonly said of famous beauties. She who uses with artistic taste Wisdom's Famous Robertine has fortune in the possessing of a complexion to which nothing but the blush of the rose or the freshness of the lily can be compared. This preparation is just what it is claimed to be—the most delightful toilet article and only perfect beautifier known. Read the testimonials from famous artists, celebrated chemists and eminent physicians. D. E. Campbell, agent.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child, and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

Took Chinese Across.

PORT TOWNSEND, Sept. 19.—Thirty Chinese direct from British Columbia were landed one mile above Port Wilson last night. Four customs inspectors witnessed their landing, but were unable to capture them. Later in the day six Chinese were arrested in town, supposed to be of the same lot which were landed last night. A small British steamer called the Burt, manned by two white men, brought the Chinese across from Victoria, and succeeded in getting away.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

TO DEPOSITORS

The British Columbia Land & Investment Agency, Ld.

(SUCCESSORS TO ALLSOP & MASON.)

In view of the low rate of interest given by the Dominion Savings Bank Department, and the restrictions imposed as to the amount to be deposited, this Company is now prepared to receive money on deposit, in large or small amounts, at interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, and on favorable terms as to notice, etc.

The offices of the Company have been removed to 40 Government street, the premises lately occupied by the Telegraph Company.
